PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The F 100 is small in footprint but big in performance. The attractive pattern in the cast iron and up to 7kW peak output in thermal performance means that the stove makes its presence known in every room, both aesthetically and temperature-wise. Despite the small size of the stove, it has a big glass door that gives a good view of the fire.

Advantages

- Cast iron
- Large view of the burning logs
- Ash lip
- Caters to 40 cm logs
- Internal ash removal solution
- Available with enameled surface
