PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The Tuscany Garden Oven is a high quality garden oven providing gourmet results beyond expectation and includes a clever smoke bypass control allowing conventional cooking or use as a smoker oven. Relax around your Tuscany Garden Oven, enjoying sensational food with family and friends.

Complement your alfresco dining with the Tuscany Garden Oven for conventional cooking of pizza, bread, sweet and savoury biscuits and pastries and even the Sunday roast. And, as a smoking oven the Tuscany is great at smoked fish and meats and savouries.

Many years of specialized knowledge gained in producing our large range of combustion cookers and boilers has enabled Wiseliving to produce an elegant and versatile garden oven at an affordable price.

The Tuscany also comes on wheels so you can move it as you please and start cooking anywhere. No need for the anguish often associated with built-in pizza ovens. It is complete with pizza shovel, firebox rake, complementary heat beads & firelighters.

The Tuscany comes in two colours; black or black with stainless steel outer case. It can also be supplied as a base unit for installation on a pre-existing suitable platform or on a trolley with wire shelf.
